Directions for written registrations

The applicant should always give his details first. We will send you the total account and all documents concerning the registration.

- 1 We need your age for calculating the price of your admission pass, for the letter of invitation in case you need a visa, and for allocating accommodation if applicable.
- 2 We can offer communal accommodation in schools and accommodation in private homes. Accommodation in private homes is primarily available for senior/older and handicapped participants.
- 3 There are special family schools for families with young children (0-11). Please signify the families in question in using a brace. The small administrative fee of EUR 18 per person (maximum EUR 36 for families) includes breakfast.

4 Reductions apply to

- » young people up to the age of 25, irrespective of their profession
- » disabled people (please send/fax a copy of your handicapped ID)
- » unemployed people
- » people receiving benefit payments
- » pensioners - if their economic situation demands it

- 5 There is special accommodation available for handicapped participants. Please make sure to state who the handicapped person is and state the type of the handicap.

- 6 We are aware of the fact that these are sensitive data. But they are of great help to us. We will not store the data in connection to the person in question. We comply with the data protection provisions.

You are going to receive a bill and our general terms and conditions after your registration has been processed. In sending the bill we conclude a contract for participation in the 2nd EKT with you. The attendance fee is not tax-deductable.

Thank you very much for registering for the 2nd Ecumenical Kirchentag 2010.
